The Euphoria of Chap Goh Mei at Hotel Borobudur Jakarta

The term Chap Goh Mei comes from the Hokkien dialect which means the fifteenth night of the Chinese New Year. Chap means ten, Goh means five and Mei means night. It marks the final day of Chinese New Year celebration. The once a year event was also celebrated at Hotel Borobudur Jakarta on Friday, 2nd March 2018.

Not only on the D-day, the euphoria was there at the hotel since almost a month ago with Little Chinatown Market which was held on 7th February – 5th March 2018 on Bogor Cafe lobby area. It has the vibe of Chinatown with the explosive red color all over the corners. The market sold variety of foods, fashion and artworks, attracted many guests who passed by the location.

To complete the vibe of Chap Goh Mei, Hotel Borobudur Jakarta prepared Barongsai with five lions to entertain the guests with spectacular performance around the hotel. The performance began with the opening ceremony which people call as Jamuan in front of the giant Chinese coin decoration on lobby drop zone. The Barongsai then started to roam around the hotel to get the angpao, red envelope that contains money.

Moreover, Hotel Borobudur Jakarta was decorated with beautiful lanterns, Chinese gate, meihwa tree, giant Chinese coin, pagoda and photo booth. The guests took pictures with the Barongsai and decorations to commemorate the Chap Goh Mei celebration.
